

About the Presenter

Connie Tinsley is a Certified Thanatologist. She attended New England Institute of Applied Arts and Sciences, and the National Center for Death Education in Boston, Massachusetts. She also attended classes at the University of Connecticut, Baylor College of Medicine, Kauai College, the College of Metaphysics, the University of Texas and Kansas State Teachers College.

She has worked in the Hospice field 27 years as Bereavement Coordinator and Volunteer Coordinator. She was president of the Mid-Missouri Hospice Foundation for two terms, and is currently the Hospice Bereavement Coordinator and Hospice Volunteer Coordinator with Bothwell Regional Health Center Hospice, where she also does private grief counseling and facilitates support groups, presents workshops, coordinates Memorial Services and the Annual Community Tree of Memories.